

Invitation to Participate in the 6th International Nursing Conference:
Value Creations for Sustainable Health and Well-being of Mankind

Dear

The Faculty of Nursing, Prince of Songkla University, Thailand, is pleased to announce that we will be hosting the 6th International Nursing Conference: *Value Creations for Sustainable Health and Well-being of Mankind. This three-day event will take place from May 27 to May 29, 2026, at the 60th Anniversary of His Majesty the King's Accession to the Throne International Convention Center, Hat Yai, Songkhla, Thailand.

The purpose of this conference is to advance evidence-based nursing research and innovation to promote sustainable health and well-being. It fosters interdisciplinary collaboration while addressing global challenges such as environmental health, climate resilience, and disaster preparedness. Additionally, it highlights nursing's role in health promotion, disease prevention, and leadership development, shaping future healthcare innovators.

In this regard, we would like to cordially invite you to participate in the International Nursing Conference and submit an abstract for presentation. Detailed information regarding registration and abstract submission is available at <https://interconf.nur.psu.ac.th/>. The conference will be held from May 27 to 29, 2026, in Thailand.

We sincerely hope you will join us in making this conference a remarkable and impactful event. Your support in sharing details of this conference would also be greatly appreciated, as it will help us reach potential participants.

Thank you for your cooperation, and we look forward to welcoming you to Hat Yai in May 2026.

Yours sincerely,

#sg01#
